Addressee:

Subject: Support for EWGA

Dear _____:

The Executive Women Golf Association-Houston Chapter is part of an International Association dedicated to enriching the lives of woman through the game of golf.

Since 1991, the EWGA has touched lives over 85,000 women. This not-for-profit membership association has approximately 20,000 members in over 120 chapters through out the United States, Canada and France.

The Houston Chapter, also a member of an all-Texas Section, was organized in 1993. Currently, we have 210-plus members and still growing. Our organization offers a wide range of organized golf activities, education programs, player development, and charitable volunteer, develop scholarship programs, and social and networking opportunities for both novice and experienced golfers.

We are currently seeking donations, participation at kick-off, or sponsorship for our upcoming events in 2010. The highest attendance event is our kick-off event held on February 20, 2009. Over 80% of our membership and new prospects are in attendance.

This is the perfect opportunity for you to promote your business and help us reach our goal to provide opportunities for women to learn, play and enjoy the game of golf for business and life - "EWGA is for Every Woman".

Someone will be in touch with you in follow up to this letter. We look forward to speaking with _____ you / a representative of your company.

Thank you for your consideration and we look forward to a mutually beneficial relationship for years to come.

Sincerely,
